

May Co. to Stage Gala Party for 14,000 Southland Camp Fire Girls

CLEAN-UP DETAIL . . . Doctors, members of their staff, and families turned out in force last week end to clean up the presises around the Riviera Community Hospital here. A group of about 40 local physicians have formed a non-profit corporation and gained control of the 93-bed hospital plant.

Two parties at the Shrine Auditorium for 14,000 Camp Fire Girls on Saturday, March 11 will commemorate the Golden Jubilee of this organization. Jon Provost and Lassie will headline a star-arrayed program to entertain Blue Birds, Camp Fire Girls, and Horizon Club members of ten Councils of Camp Fire Girls in Los Angeles County. Girls and Leaders will be guests of The May Co.

A capacity audience of 7,000 Blue Birds will attend a morning show beginning at 9:15 a.m., and an equal number of Camp Fire Girls and Horizon Club girls will view the afternoon show beginning at 1:15 p.m.

MAGGIE PEXTON, director of advertising and public relations for the May Co., will welcome both assemblies and will introduce Bill Ballance, KFWB disc jockey, who is serving as master of ceremonies. Mrs. Milton B. Smith, president of Region V of Camp Fire Girls and Mrs. Norman Leonard, president of the Los Angeles Area Council, will give a brief message.

Television personalities, recording stars, vaudeville acts, and special Camp Fire Girl acts and inspirational tableaux will provide entertainment. Opening ceremony will feature the 72nd United States Army Band from Fort MacArthur, under the direction of Chief Warrant Officer Oliver Margolin.

THE FOUR Coquettes, Judi Hersh, Carol McConkey, Muffy Cohan, and Mary Anne Lucas, Capitol recording artists, will feature their hit record "Sparkle and Shine".

The Westchester Lariats, famed dance group directed by Dr. J. Tillman Hall of USC, will perform authentic dances from around the world.

Vaudeville acts include the musical nonsense of The Wilder Brothers; the zany free-wheeling Volantes; Evers and Dolores, dancing in the air; Jerry Rosen and the Shrine Orchestra, and Bob Mitchell at the Shrine organ. Ann Woolf, Director of Hollywoodland Camp for Girls, will lead community singing at both shows.

THE GOLDEN Jubilee celebration, in which girls participate, will commemorate the founding of Camp Fire Girls by Dr. and Mrs. Luther Halsey Gulick in 1910. Camp Fire Girls was the first non-sectarian leisure-time program for girls in America. The Gulicks founded it on their belief that "character is formed predominantly during leisure hours". Camp Fire Girls offers girls 7 to 17 an educational-recreation program combining fun and friendship with character-building activities.

Ten Councils in Los Angeles County participating in the Golden Jubilee parties are: Arcadia, Burbank, Compton, El Monte, Glendale-La Crescenta-Valley, Long Beach, Mt. San Antonio, Rio Hondo, San Gabriel Valley, and Los Angeles Area, serving over 30,000 girls. Camp Fire Girls will take part in opening ceremonies at each show and will participate in the closing ceremonies and narration of the meaning of the symbols on a specially carved Camp Fire totem pole.

World War I Vets Install Slonecker as Commander

A member of a pioneer Walteria family was scheduled to take over as commander of the Torrance Barracks of the Veterans of World War I in ceremonies at Walteria Park last night.

Paul Slonecker, 24430 Neece Ave., superintendent of the city garage, was to succeed Art Hicks, charter commander of the organization, in ceremonies scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. in the Walteria Recreation Hall.

OFFICERS elected to serve with Slonecker for the coming year include Pat Huffine, 24434 Ward St., senior vice commander; Harold Van Wie, 25718 Eshelman Ave., junior vice commander; Rudolph Gunther, 22224 S. Vermont Ave., chaplain; and Art Hicks, 1011 Cota Ave., quartermaster.

Other posts are to be filled by Art Henderson, judge advocate, and Ernest Littrell, trustee.

SCHEDULED for installation at the same time were officers of the ladies auxiliary to be headed by Mrs. Paul Slonecker.

Other officers include Vesta Littrell, senior vice president; Marian Estes, junior vice president; Anita Huffine, treasurer; Margaret Bradley, chaplain; May Van Wie, conductor; and Anna Dannenheuer and Grace Hicks, trustees.

WILLIAM Neville was to be installing officer for the men and Bea Chaffin for the women. The ritual team of Long Beach Barracks of the organization were to conduct installation ceremonies.

Membership in the organization is limited to veterans of service during World War I.

Rezoning for Apartments in 'Strip' Sought

A request for rezoning to permit multiple dwellings on 219th St. between Western Ave. and Harvard Blvd. will be considered at a Los Angeles City Planning Commission public hearing to be held at 1:30 p.m., Monday, March 13, at the Wilmington Branch City Hall, 411 Neptune Ave.

Louis L. Steinberg is the property owner requesting the change from the present R-2 duplex zoning to the R-3 multiple-dwelling zoning. The area proposed to be changed includes both sides of the street for the full length of the block between Western Ave. and Harvard Blvd. located in the shoeing strip portion of Los Angeles.

The hearing will be conducted by an examiner designated by the City Planning Commission. Following the hearing a report and recommendation will be submitted to the Commission. If the change is disapproved an appeal may be filed with the City Council.

Army Pvt. Richard J. Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy E. Peterson, 1054 Avenue E. Redondo Beach, completed eight weeks of advanced individual light-weapon training at Fort Ord, California, Feb. 24.

Peterson was trained in infantry unit combat tactics and handling and firing light infantry weapons, including the M-1 rifle, machinegun and rocket launchers.

The 18-year-old soldier entered the Army in September 1960 and completed basic training at Fort Ord.

Peterson is a 1960 graduate of South High School.
